THE BARRY SISTERS
THEIR GREATEST YIDDISH HITS

CD 336
The Barry Sisters began performing when they were children and were first called The Begelman Sisters. As they grew older, they changed their stage name to The Barry Sisters. They began performing in the New York Catskills resort hotels, and became so popular that they became one of the biggest acts of the Yiddish theater circuit thrilling audiences from New York to Miami Beach. They toured and appeared with Mickey Katz (father of Joel Gray of Cabaret fame). They became so popular that they appeared on the Ed Sullivan Television Show and were watched by millions of Americans. They later toured all of Europe and they were the first group of their kind to appear in the Soviet Union. To this day they are the most popular Jewish act in Russia (known there as The Sisters Barry), and Russian Jews throughout the world want to hear their recordings.

Many of these Yiddish songs were brought to America at the time of the huge wave of emigration of Eastern European Jews in the early 1900’s. These songs represent the best of Jewish humour and pathos.
