CANTOR YOSSELE ROSENBLATT SINGS HIS ORIGINAL CHASSIDIC NIGNIM

TWENTY OUTSTANDING MELODIES FOR THE WEEKDAYS, SHABBOS AND CONCLUSION, ROSH HASHONAH, YOM KIPUR, SUCCOS, CHANUKAH, PESSACH AND SHEVUOS

An interesting account of the colorful and eventual life of Yossele Rosenblatt as told by his son Dr. Samuel Rosenblatt, Rabbi of Beth Tfiloh Congregation in Baltimore, Maryland and Professor of Oriental Languages at John Hopkins University, was published by Farrar, Straus and Young of New York. This book has been reviewed and recommended by many famous critics for the fine way in which it was written. It is entitled "Yossele Rosenblatt" and can be purchased from all book stores.

Cantor Henry Rosenblatt, also a son of Yossele Rosenblatt, sings together with his father in the selection Atoh Yatzir in volume 1 of Yossele Rosenblatt's LP recordings (GRC 36) and on volume 2 (GRC4) in the selection Yosef Tzurimenuah. He is a well known authority on liturgical music and has made his own recordings, singing some of his father's famous compositions that were never recorded on phonograph records.
