GOLDEN VOICES OF ISRAEL
VOLUME 3

SIDE ONE

VA'YOMER HASHEM

This portion is the third section of the Shema, the entire foundation of Jewish ethics, basis and practice. The paragraph makes reference to the liberation of our people from Egypt. We are taught that all these teachings can be constantly kept before our eyes, and those of our children by means of the Tzizis (prayers). This will serve to bring about the furtherance of holiness in the individual and for the Jewish nation.

HASKIVAYNU

Part of the weekday, Shabbos and Yom Tov Evening Service. G-d grant that we lie down in peace and rise up to life; shield and remove us from every misfortune.

SIM SHOLOM

A supplication that G-d grant peace, happiness, blessing, grace and mercy to all Israel his people.

SIDE TWO

LEFICHOCH

We are happy that it is our duty to thank, glorify, praise, bless, sanctify and offer thanksgiving to G-d.

S'FIRAS HO'OMER

L-rd of the universe, you commanded us through Moses to count the Omer in order to cleanse us from evil and impurities. May it purify our souls and spirits from all corruption. Counting the Omer for seven weeks serves to connect Passover, the anniversary of the exodus from Egypt with the Shavuoth festival commemorating giving of the Torah on Mount Sinai.

UYVOM HASHABBOS

Part of the Shabbos Mussaph Service. A description of the Sabbath offering. Two perfect yearling male lambs, a meal offering (which was a mixture of flour and oil) and the drink offering.
