

Concert of the week: Joe Elias

LADINO LIVES! Joe Elias, right, performed Friday at Florida Atlantic University's S.E. Wimberly Library in Boca Raton along with guitarist Maurice Sedacca for a lecture and concert titled "Ladino Lives!" Elias, who was born and raised in the oral tradition of Ladino, the medieval Spanish language preserved by the Spanish Jews, has traveled throughout the Ladino-speaking world performing and collecting folksongs. This was the third event in the five-part 2007-2008 KULTUR series, and was hosted by the Judaica Sound Archives at FAU Libraries. Photos/Jeff Graves

